From Monday APRIL 13, to Monday APRIL 27, 1767.

Charles-Town, April 27, 1767.

ON Thurſday the 16th inſtant, a complete merchant-ſhip, deſigned for the Briſtol trade, to be commanded by Capt. John Laſley, was launched at Hobcaw, by Mr. John Roſe, the builder, and called the LIBERTY. In honour to Mr. Pitt, ſhe has an image-head, repreſenting that diſtinguiſhed Patriot, and was intended to be called the Pitt, 'till he was created Earl of Chatham; ſo great a veneration have the Americans for PITT and LIBERTY.

On Saturday the 18th inſtant, his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Charles Greville Montagu, Governor of this province, was pleaſed to give his aſſent to the following acts, viz.

1. An Act for erecting a chapel of eaſe in the upper part of St. George's pariſh, and for obliging the rector or miniſter of ſaid pariſh to perform divine ſervice therein; and for repealing the ſeventh paragraph of an act of the general aſſembly, paſſed the 25th of May, 1745; and an act paſſed the 13th of April, 1756: And for appointing certain commiſſioners in the upper part of the ſaid pariſh, to be added to the preſent board of commiſſioners, for carrying into execution, an act of the general aſſembly paſſed the 9th day of April, 1734.

2. An Act for eſtabliſhing a ferry over Port-Royal river, from Beaufort to White-Hall on Lady's Iſland.

3. An Act for erecting a bridge over Wapatawo creek, eſtabliſhing a new road to and from ſaid bridge, and for diſcontinuing the old bridge over the ſaid creek, and part of the old road leading to and from the ſaid old bridge; and for putting the road leading from the plantation of Clement Lempriere, Eſq; at Hobcaw, to the public road leading to the pariſh Church of Chriſt-Church, under the direction of the board of commiſſioners of ſaid pariſh.

4. An Act for empowering the commiſſioners of the ſtreets in Charles Town, to lay out and continue old Church-ſtreet, to George-ſtreet, in Anſonborough, and for building a bridge and cauſey at the north end of the Bay of Charles Town.

5. An Act for the more frequent holding of the Courts of General Seſſions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Aſſize, and General Goal Delivery; and to appoint and eſtabliſh a new liſt of Jury Men, and to authorize and empower the Aſſiſtant Judges to take Renunciations of Dower from Feme Coverts.

[Of which the following notice is ordered to be publiſhed, viz.]

ORDERED,

THAT public notice be given, That by an act paſſed the 18th inſtant, intitled, an act for the more frequent holding of the Court of General Seſſions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Aſſize and General Goal Delivery; and to appoint and eſtabliſh a new liſt of jurymen; and to authorize and impower the aſſiſtant judges to take renunciations of dower from feme coverts: IT IS AMONG OTHER THINGS ENACTED, That from, and immediately after the paſſing of this act, inſtead of the times heretofore appointed for the holding the ſaid court of general ſeſſions, (to wit) the third Wedneſday in March, and the third Wedneſday in October; the ſaid court of general ſeſſions of the peace, oyer and terminer, aſſize, and general goal delivery, ſhall always hereafter be holden and ſit three times in every twelve months, (that is to ſay) on the third Monday in OCTOBER on the third Monday in JANUARY, and on the third Monday in APRIL; and ſhall adjourn de Die in Diem, until all trials and other buſineſs that is to be diſpatched and tranſacted by juries, ſhall be finiſhed; & then the ſaid court may adjourn to any further days or times for giving judgment, awarding, executing, or doing any other lawful and neceſſary buſineſs, belonging to the ſaid court, about which the attendance of juries is not required by law; any law, ſtatute, uſage or cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding. And that all proceſs, warrants, orders, recognizances, and other matters and things, now depending in the court of general ſeſſions; and all proceedings thereupon had, which before the paſſing of this act ſtood adjourned over, continued, or were returnable at the court of general ſeſſions, heretofore appointed to be holden on the third Wedneſday in October next, ſhall be continued, proceeded upon, heard, tried, judged and determined, at the next court of general ſeſſions, hereby appointed to be held the third Monday in OCTOBER next; and the ſaid court is hereby authorized, and impowered to proceed thereupon, and to make ſuch orders relating thereto as the ſaid court might or could do, if it was to be held the ſaid third Wedneſday in October next, and this act had never been paſſed: any law, uſage, or cuſtom, to the contrary thereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

By order of the houſe,
THOMAS FARR, jun. Clerk.

6. An Act for granting to His Majeſty the ſum of Sixty Thouſand Pounds, for the building an Exchange and Cuſtom Houſe, and a new Watch Houſe in Charles Town, for the ſervice of this government, and for other ſervices therein mentioned; and for appointing and empowering commiſſioners to execute the ſame.

[The commiſſioners appointed for carrying this act into execution, are, the hon. Peter Manigault, Eſq; Speaker, and Benj. Smith, James Parſons, Thomas Lynch, Henry Laurens, Benjamin Dart, Miles Brewton, John Rutledge, and Charles Pinckney, Eſqrs. For defraying the expences of the intended works, they are to ſtamp, ſign and iſſue certain orders; for the ſinking of which in five years, an additional duty is laid on the following goods imported, viz.

|---|---|---|
| Every pipe of wine | | £. 4 10 0 |
| Every gallon of rum | | 9 |
| Every 100 lb. of | White biſket | 3 9 |
| | Middling | 2 6 |
| | Brown or ſhip | 1 8 |
| | Flour | 2 6 |

A convenient, proper and handſome watch houſe is firſt to be built, in Broad ſtreet, between the public armory, ſtate-houſe, St. Michael's church and the market. When that is compleated, the old watch houſe is to be pulled down, and the exchange and cuſtom-houſe erected in its ſtead, according to a plan annexed to the act, extending, on the Bay from north to ſouth 92 feet, and from eaſt to weſt 72, and to contain (beſides ſeveral cellars to be let) the collector's and naval offices, and a large room for the meeting of the inhabitants.—A ſtreet 30 feet wide is to be left on the N. E. and W. ſides of this building.—No goods whatever are to be expoſed there at private or public ſale, on pain of forfeiture.—When the new exchange ſhall be opened, the old one or vendue-houſe is to be levelled.——One hundred pounds per annum is to be allowed a proper perſon, to have the care of the new exchange.]

7. An Act for granting to His Majeſty the ſum of Eighteen Thouſand Pounds, current money, to be paid for a general ſurvey of this province; and for appointing commiſſioners to enter into a written agreement with Tacitus Gaillard, Eſq; and Mr. James Cooke, for that purpoſe.

[Benj. Smith, Benj. Dart, Charles Pinckney, Peter Porcher, Iſaac Porcher, and Benj. Guerard, Eſqrs. are the commiſſioners appointed—The knowledge and abilities of Theodore Gaillard, Eſq; one of the ſurveyors, we are well acquainted with; but Mr. James Cooke, being a ſtranger lately come into this province, it may be neceſſary to ſay ſomething of him. He has been before employed in ſervices of this kind, and from the draughts he has already publiſhed of his ſurvey of Weſt-Florida, &c. he appears to have merit, and a capacity of executing his work with accuracy and to public ſatisfaction: We hear he began his ſurvey laſt Monday, and intends to minute down his obſervations on animals, vegetables, and minerals, with the opinions of the natives concerning them, and their uſes; and to add every thing that may tend to compleat a natural hiſtory of the province. By an obſervation of his taken oppoſite to Mayne's wharf, about the center of this town, it ſtands in 32 degrees 42 minutes north latitude.——Some of his draughts may be had at Mr. John Tuke's on the Bay.]

8. An Act to revive and continue for the term therein limited, ſeveral acts, and clauſes of acts of the general aſſembly of this province; and for repealing part of the General Duty-Act; and for appointing inſpectors of Hemp for the ports of George Town, and Beaufort Port Royal.

[By this act the General Duty-Law paſſed in 1751, is continued of force for 5 years, except the 6th and 7th clauſes and ſome parts of the 35th, altered by ſubſequent acts; and the clauſe that impoſed duties on the articles under-mentioned imported from other colonies, which is now repealed for two years, provided the importers give ſecurity to export ſuch goods within ſix months, or pay the duties. The duties taken off are,

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| On every barrel of | Pork, — | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| | Beef, — | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| On every 100 l. value of Timber, Plank, Boards, Staves, Shingles or other Lumber | | 20 | 0 | 0 |
| On every Deer-Skin, — — | | 0 | 0 | 6 |
| On every barrel of | PitchTarTurpt. | 0 | 10 | 0 |
| On every pound of Indico — | | 0 | 1 | 0 |

'Tis ſcarce credible, what advantages will accrue to the trade and commerce of this province, by the judicious diſcontinuance of the above impoſts, beſides the employment it will afford to our numerous coaſters during the ſummer ſeaſon.]

Laſt Monday being Eaſter Monday, the time appointed by Law for the election of Pariſh Officers, the following gentlemen were choſen, viz.

SOUTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it hath been ſignified to me, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, that it is His Majeſty's pleaſure, that the ſeveral perſons trading to the different nations of INDIANS, under his protection, ſhould be put under ſuch rules and regulations as will more effectually tend to promote and carry on the ſaid trade; and it is thereby become neceſſary, that all Licences heretofore granted from this province ſhould determine and be void: I DO THEREFORE, by the advice of His Majeſty's Honourable Council, iſſue this my Proclamation, declaring that ſuch LICENCES as have been heretofore granted by me, or any former Governor of this province, ſhall continue to be of force and valid until the fourteenth day of July next, and no longer; and that therefrom and thereafter, they, and each of them, ſhall reſpectively CEASE and be of none effect, as if ſuch licences had never been granted. And of this Proclamation, all perſons concerned, are hereby required to take due notice, as they will anſwer the contrary at their peril.

GIVEN under my hand, and the great ſeal of the ſaid province, at CHARLES-TOWN, the fifteenth day of April, Anno Domini one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty ſeven, and in the ſeventh year of his Majeſty's reign.

C. G. MONTAGU.

By his Excellency's command,

GOD SAVE THE KING.

New Advertiſements.

STRAYED away from the common of Charles Town, the 7th of April inſt. a dark bay horſe, between 13 and 14 hands high, with a ſmall blaze in his forehead, a cut mane, a white ſtreak about four inches from his ears marked by a bell ſtrap at each ſide, has a thick neck, and three galls on his back and ſide, he is hip ſhotten with a lump on the hip the ſize of a ſmall tea cup, branded on the ſaid ſide with QV where he is ſhipped from, with a ſwitch tail, is pretty yellow at each ſhoulder, his buttocks a little below his rump, to his ſide of [illegible] D, at public v[illegible] hams; paces or trots. Whoever will deliver the ſaid horſe to Thomas Euſtace, tavern keeper in King-ſtreet, oppoſite to Mr. Nicholſon [illegible]-maſter, ſhall receive a reward of five pounds currency, from

THOMAS EUSTACE.

MR. TIMOTHY,

SIR,

IN your laſt week's Paper, I obſerved an ADVERTISEMENT, wherein 'tis ſaid, "The old Ringers have not met this five months, owing to the avarice of the C——k, in ſhewing them while ringing, to all comers and goers, for his own private intereſt." This, I take to myſelf, and do now acquaint the anonymous Author, that if any perquiſites are to be made thereby, they, of right, belong to me, as being the perſon who takes the greateſt trouble on ſuch occaſions;—but, perhaps, J—s—a L—k—d, the Clock winder, may object thereto, thinking that, that part where the Clock and Bells are placed, is intirely under his juriſdiction; and that my receiving money for people going up there, is as great an innovation on his right, as I ſhould eſtrem his receiving my Clerk's fees, an innovation on mine.—If he does, let him continue thinking ſo;—but I muſt aver that, if any fees are made on ſuch occaſions, they belong to the Clerk; and, as J—s—a L—k—d has already got a good deal of the Clerk's money in his pocket, which he received that way, I think, he may reſt himſelf ſatisfied, and not be ſo ungenerous, as to want the Clerk to give him more to ſtop his mouth.

I was not in the Steeple that night the book Mr. Davis gave the Ringers was ſent there, neither did I ſee it 'till ſome time after:—When it was handed about again, I was there, and ſaw it, as well as the reſt.—After it was put upon the table, and we had done ringing, I locked it up in the Veſtry-room, where it lay about 3 months, unaſked for, when I took it home and peruſed it.—Sometime after, one of the Ringers aſked for it, I told him, I wou'd bring it when we met, which, I muſt own, I forgot to do; but had any of them ſent for it, they might have had it, as was the caſe, when Mr. Davis aſked for it about a month ago, when I gave it him, and never ſaw it ſince, 'till laſt Saturday at Mr. Painſett's.

I have been very explicit on this matter, that it may appear in the proper and true light, and the malicious and unjuſt inſinuations in the Advertiſement, meet with that contempt they and their Author merit.

CLERK of ST. MICHAEL'S.

January 19. In the circle of the new town to be built on Shuter's hill, is to be a baſon of water; and in the center of that baſon a circular iſland, on which a coffee-houſe is to be erected, and over it an aſſembly room, the entrance to which is to be by four bridges, and from which there are to be four grand ſtreets, leading to four different high roads, to be made out for Greenwich, Woolwich, Graveſend, and the high road over Shuter's Hill; and betwixt the houſes and the baſon will be a handſome ſtreet made out, ſo that each road will communicate with the other.

On Wedneſday evening four watermen, who had been ſkaiting on the Serpentine river in Hyde-Park, after regaling themſelves at a public houſe at Knightſbridge, put on their ſkaits in the tap room, ſet off at the door, and ſkaited up the road to the gate of the Green Park, from thence down Conſtitution hill, through the Bird-cage walk in St. James's Park, along Great George ſtreet and Bridge ſtreet, and over Weſtminſter bridge, to the ſign of the two brewers, to the aſtoniſhment of many perſons. They were obſtructed ſomewhat in the ſtreets by the ſtraw laid to preſerve the pipes, but theſe difficulties they eaſily ſurmounted.

On Saturday an expreſs was ſent from the admiralty office, for the commiſſioners of Portſmouth and Plymouth docks.

According to private letters from Rome, two Corſican agents had lately arrived there, charged with ſome diſpatches from Paoli and the ſenate. It was alſo given out, that his Holineſs was endeavouring to procure a retreat in that iſland for the exiled Jeſuits, lately baniſhed from Portugal and other countries.

Several companies of Highlanders are ordered to be raiſed in Scotland, to recruit Lord Panmure's regiment of Scotch fuſiliers, ſtationed in Weſt Florida.

They write from Madrid, that a very large quantity of copper had been found at Barcelona, which was brought from South America during the miniſtry of the marquis de la Enſenada. It was dug out of the mines at Peru, and is ſaid to be far ſuperior in goodneſs to the European metal. There is enough of it to caſt three thouſand pieces of ordnance. It is further reported, that there is as much of the ſame ſort to be found at the Havannah; and that a quantity will be brought to Spain in the veſſels returning from Peru.

They write from Gibraltar, that materials have been imported from the Barbary coaſt, for building a grand battery and outworks on the peninſula, towards Spain, which will alſo have a greater command of all ſhipping in the bay.

January 27. We hear that [illegible] war now fitting out at Portſmouth, will carry an extra number of hands over and above their full compliment.

The hon. houſe of commons did not break up till paſt two o' clock yeſterday morning.

A certain popular nobleman marrying with a reverend baronet at Bath, whoſe anceſtors had, by will, liberally beſtowed fortune on the nobleman, very affectionately enquired into his circumſtances, and deſired to know, in what manner his intereſt could ſerve him.—The baronet thankfully received the offer, and declining any pecuniary favour, ſeemed moſt willing to accept church preferment, on which the noble perſonage immediately procured him an eccleſiaſtical poſt in Ireland, which may put him in a way for a biſhoprick.

They adviſe from Berlin, that Sir Andrew Mitchell, the Britiſh Ambaſſador, had lately had ſeveral conferences with his Pruſſian Majeſty; and from ſome circumſtances, and the frequent arrival of expreſſes from London, it was apprehended ſomewhat of importance was in agitation.

Recent letters from Leghorn mention, that his Sardinian Majeſty continues to intereſt himſelf greatly in favour of the independency of the Corſican nation.

January 27. We hear that the ſtate of a great company will will be conſidered the 6th of February.

Extract of a letter from Hamburgh, Jan. 1.

"A courier arrived here early this morning in a very extraordinary dreſs, ſaid to be a Corſican expreſs, with diſpatches from General Paoli to my Lord Mariſchal of Scotland, and Sir Andrew Mitchell, his Britannic Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the court of Pruſſia. We hear that the courier was immediately carried to the Stadt-houſe and examined for upwards of two hours; but nothing has yet tranſpired. It was with ſome difficulty that our magiſtrates allowed him to paſs, under a convoy of the city guards, who were to attend him for ſeveral leagues, and take care that he was not followed by any of our ſailors, who had geathered about him in great crowds on his firſt arrival. Our magiſtrates had alſo the precaution to ſtop the departure of the poſt ſome hours, in order that an account of this ſingular affair might firſt be tranſmitted to Potſdam by a ſpecial meſſenger, before the letters of our idle politicians ſhould make the news of it reſound through Brandenburgh, and to Paris and Vienna. The Corſican courier had plenty of money about him; and by his air and manner, it was ſtrongly ſuſpected that he is a man of more diſtinction than he chuſes ſhould be known."

Yeſterday there was the fulleſt houſe of commons that has been ſince the commencement of the preſent ſeſſion; and ſat late.

If credit can be given to private advices from Madrid, the Catholic Miniſtry have, for ſome time paſt, appeared to be actually alarmed, leſt Great Britain, influenced by the councils of a great man in the adminiſtration, ſhould proceed to very diſagreeable lengths for obtaining redreſs in the affair of the Manilla ranſom.

A perſon who ſerved his time to a ſhipbuilder at Sunderland, has now a ſalary of 300l. ſterling per annum from the General of the Corſicans; and has undertaken to build ſeveral ſhips of war on the Engliſh model, at Fornale, in the Gulph of St. Fiorenzo.

They write from Amſterdam, that 2000 tons of naval and military ſtores, a large quantity of ſalt-petre, &c. are at preſent buying up to be ſhipped in Dutch bottoms for the ſervice of a certain riſing maritime ſtate in the Mediterranean; and it is ſaid, the tranſports which carried theſe ſtores, were not to return.

New inſtructions are ſaid to be preparing to be ſent to all our Governors in the Weſt-Indies.

January 30. According to private advices from Leghorn, a remarkable change was ſhortly [illegible] to take place in the [illegible] of the Corſicans. [illegible] mention is made, that numbers of inhabitants had arrived [illegible] ſtrangers.

[illegible] They write from [illegible] that extraordinary [illegible] Florida, [illegible] to lay before the [illegible] by ſome important [illegible] for the [illegible] of [illegible]

[illegible] letters from [illegible] Corſicans [illegible] here, was furniſhed with [illegible] to the amount of 200 [illegible] which was drawn on a principal merchant there.

February 3. We hear from Briſtol that a Dutch captain was arrived there, who had a commiſſion from General Paoli to [illegible] ſome Britiſh veſſels, formerly privateers, to be laden with various kinds of ſtores for Corſica.

February 5. Very large commiſſions have within theſe few days been received, to ſhip Carolina rice for the markets of Spain and the Mediterranean.

Europe is at preſent in a very ticklish ſituation. Poland intirely diſturbed about religion. The ſubjects of Spain ſo diſguſted, that the King reluctantly dares venture to his capital. Portugal quarrelling with its grandees. France diſturbed by diſſentions between the King and ſome of its parliaments. Sweden not quite at reſt. Some active powerful ſtates watching where the beſt booty will fall. Germany going to hang all the Witches and Wizards. Geneva almoſt ruined. And England divided againſt itſelf, and the great at variance for the loaves and the fiſhes, not at eaſe about the Manilla ranſom, and uneaſy about many other things. —It is a pity that the powerful will not have ſome regard for the happineſs and content of their Sovereign, and unite to make thoſe nations feel our reſentment who refuſe to do us juſtice.

We are extremely ſorry to inform the public, that we hear from Bath, that the Right Honourable the Earl of Chatham never was ſo ill of the gout as he is at preſent, it having ſeized his hands, feet, and ſeveral other parts of his body; but it is hoped, God will ſpare his valuable life, and not deprive his country of his aſſiſtance, at ſo critical a juncture, when, perhaps, it never had more need of it.

February 10. Whatever is the deſign of the preſent naval armament, we may conclude, that our Miniſtry intend to ſupport the honour and dignity of this nation with foreign powers, by not ſuffering them to trifle or violate their engagements; for it is a certain truth, that vigorous meaſures are the only proper ſteps we can take with reſpect to our neighbours on the continent, who regard treaties no longer than they ſuit their intereſt, of which we have had ſundry inſtances, both in our own, and former times; but as our preſent ſpirited miniſters ſeem reſolved that juſtice ſhall take place, we have the greateſt reaſon to expect that the Spaniards, Portugueſe, and Dutch will dread the arms, and tremble at the reſentment of Great Britain.

A letter from Cette mentions, that 30,000 trees in the foreſts of Languedoc, have lately been cut down and brought there, by land and other carriages, to be ſhipped for Marſeilles and Toulon, for the conſtruction of ſeveral new men of war, which are now on the ſtocks.

We hear that three companies of Artillery are to be embarked next month for St. Auguſtine, the government having formed a deſign of rendering that place as ſtrong as art and nature can make it.

We are informed, that all our men of war, laid up for the future in any of the dock yards of this kingdom, will be ſecured from the rain and weather by being roofed over, as is done in Holland, which will prevent their planks and timber from rotting.

It is ſtrongly reported, that the naval expedition now fitting out is intended for the Mediterranean.

Several foreign courts are greatly alarmed with our armament now getting ready.—— This is the ſure way to make them keep their promiſes, and will haſten the payment of the Manilla ranſom, &c.

February [illegible] Monday ſome diſpatches, ſaid to be of great importance, were ſent from the Secretary of State's office, to Sir [illegible] Governor of New-York.

[illegible] meſſenger arrived in [illegible] with diſpatches for the Earl of Chat[illegible] that his Lordſhip [illegible] confined with the gout, but is not [illegible]

[illegible] preparations attract[illegible]; and the know[illegible]reet, who ſay and [illegible] laid bets of three [illegible] that they are [illegible] and more [illegible]

[illegible] honourable William [illegible] ſet out in a few [illegible] court of Portugal. [illegible] now fitting out are [illegible] that have been [illegible] not intended upon [illegible]

We hear that a certain Great Man, thinks himſelf affected by a work lately publiſhed, intitled, "A ſeries of letters, touching the late intended invaſion of this kingdom by the French, &c." which greatly engages the attention of the political world. It is bought up with the greateſt avidity by an incredible number of the learned and curious of all ranks, many of whom being perſons of the greateſt diſtinction, and moſt ſhining abilities, have teſtified the higheſt approbation of them by their generoſity to the author, and acknowledging that they diſcloſe many curious particulars which our great Statеſmen and Politicians were ignorant of till communicated by him, which it ſeems he did a conſiderable time before he had any deſign of publiſhing them.

February 14. On the 2d inſtant died at Beverly in Yorkſhire, in the 82d year of his age, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Johnſton, Vicar of St. Mary's Church in that town upwards of 50 years, during which time, he never had a diſpute with any pariſhioner.

We hear that companies of marines are ordered to do duty on board all the guard ſhips at Portſmouth and Plymouth.

On Thurſday night ſome diſpatches were ſent away for Falmouth, to be put on board the Earl of Hilſborough packet, Capt. Grove, for Lord Charles Greville Montagu, his Majeſty's Governor of South-Carolina.

The Miniſtry, we are told, intend ſhortly to make a free port of Penſacola; a meaſure of that nature being judged extremely ſalutary, by thoſe who are beſt acquainted with the commerce of America.

We are credibly informed, that 8000 ſeamen will be ſoon wanted to man the ſeveral men of war now fitting out in the different parts of this kingdom.

Yesterday a Razor grinder at Hunslet in this parish, sold his wife to a soldier for 1 s. and five shillings worth of punch, and delivered her in a halter.

It was last night strongly reported, that there would be no alteration in the Ministry 'till after the next general election for Members of Parliament.

Several more capital ships of war are expected to be put into commission next week.

We hear that the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham will not be in town 'till Monday or Tuesday, on account of his being attacked with a fresh fit of the gout.

February 16. Thursday night last the Privy Council sat very late, at the breaking up of which an express was immediately dispatched to Gibraltar, as it is said, with orders to fix a boom and chain across the entrance of that harbour, in order to secure it from any sudden attempt of the Spaniards, who are suspected of having a design upon that place.

We hear that the absence and severe indisposition of a Patriot Nobleman has not prevented him from studying many things for the good of his country, to whose interest he is ever attentive, particularly, that in order to lessen the national debt, he has formed a plan which will ease the people, and at the same time encrease the revenue; the substance of which is said to be as follows.

First, That a commission is to be established by legislative authority, with power to enquire by oath into the abuses of collecting and managing every branch of the public revenue, as well as the civil list. To examine into the superiority and useless officers, as well as exorbitant salaries and extorted fees: To look into the bills of the lower officers of the houshold, of the builders, stationers, gardeners, with all the ravenous crew; to search into the pensions and the pretences for granting them, and in short, into every part of the expence of the civil list, except the Queen's privy purse, and lay this enquiry before the parliament in the succeeding sessions, with the heads under which they conceive a regulation of the expence may be made.

Secondly, That it shall be made high treason for any person to pay, or any member of parliament to receive, in trust or otherwise, any pension, sum of money, or other gratuity from the crown, unless it be entered in the public office, with the reasons for granting it; and that an enquiry is to be made into the present pensions, and such as cannot stand that test to be returned.—These are things truly worthy of such a Patriot, and will prove that the principles of the peer are the same with those of the Great Commoner.

Some of the last letters from Hav[illegible] by the way of Holland, advise, that the Spaniards are diligently enlisting sailors in that city, but for the most part privately.

Friday several agents for the American colonies had a long conference with the right hon. Mr. Secretary Conway, on affairs of importance.

February 21. It is now said that General Monckton goes to North-America, as Governor of the province of New-York and Quebec, and commander in chief of the troops in North-America.

The contradiction of the ships now fitting being destined on some expedition is, we are told, a MERE contradiction; for that a fleet is to be commanded by three Admirals, (Pococke, Geary and Pallisser, are said to be the gentlemen) and will attend Mr. Lyttelton to the Tagus, whatever may be its after destination.

It is said that the troops in North-America will be drawn from the different parts of the country, and quartered in the neighbourhood of Boston and New-York.

February 23. Friday last several of the colony agents attended the board of trade and plantations.

BOSTON, March 23.

Wednesday the 18th inst. a day sacred to the liberties of America, being the anniversary of the repeal of the stamp-act, was celebrated with excessive joy; and every token expressive of gratitude and supreme satisfaction.—The dawning sun was saluted with a thunder of applause bellowing from a number of cannon, and a regular and beautiful parade of the sons of liberty through the great street of the town, with music preceding a cannon, adorned with the loyal flag waving about it; the venerable elm of liberty was variegated with a multitude of streamers most beautifully disposed among its branches, and the houses of many of the inhabitants were distinguished by the same trophy.—The burst of joy reverberated from one part of the town to the other the whole forenoon, from the busy mouths of well fed cannon,—in the afternoon, by the vote of the town, a profusion of wines and other liquors were prepared in Faneuil hall, to collect the genuine sons of joy, to celebrate this happy festival; accordingly a large company of the principal inhabitants crowded that spacious apartment, and with loud huzza's and repeated acclamations at each of the TOASTS) saluted the glorious and memorable patrons of America, particularly those who distinguished themselves in the cause of liberty, while we were groaning under the iron hand of oppression.—At the close of the day, the company retired to different houses in town, to conclude the festivity with the collations supplied by the private expence of some opulent gentlemen—when Faneuil Hall was beautifully illuminated, and the several houses where the companies were collected blazed with a profusion of candles—but the tree of liberty chiefly attracted the notice of the town, being richly shaded with the splendor issuing from 108 lanthorns, disposed in beautiful order.—Nothing could possibly exceed the grandeur of its appearance; and throughout the town, music and mirth, gratulation and joy betrayed the exalted satisfaction which took place in every breast on this thrice happy occasion.

We hear from Portsmouth that the sons of liberty also made rejoicings there on this memorable occasion.
